The Newsletter of Imbabazi Orphanage

Photograph by Charlene Jendry

Dear Friends of the Imbabazi Orphanage

This is the first of what I hope will be many newsletters. In this issue there is art work from an art contest the children had during the long Christmas Holiday.

There is also an article from the English Club about the daily activities at the orphanage.

This is a small newsletter but its intent is large: to keep everyone worldwide informed about the activities of the Imbabazi Orphanage. I hope you find it both useful and enjoyable.

We hope you have enjoyed reading our news. If you have any questions, write to us at the Imbabazi's address, but also please write with your feedback, your encouragement and support. Until next time!

For the next time we're planning to tell you about Rwandan names and their meaning.

With best wishes
